

Raising Jewish LGBTI awareness

Brendan Bolger

A group of Dayenu members and supporters ran in the Sydney Morning Herald's Sun Run last weekend raising $930 for the group JewishCare.

Dayenu – Sydney's GLBTI Jewish Group – has been working with JewishCare to establish support services for Jewish families that are struggling with the reality of a family member coming out of the closet.

Running with more than 5,000 other people, the Dayenu's team as a whole came in at 48th place.

Donations are still being accepted at everydayhero.com.au/dayenu.
